MEET THE SPEAKERS

Day 1: Ruth Layzell & Mogs Bazely

Dr Ruth Layzell

RUTH is a co-director of IPCS and a director at the Sherwood Institute, Nottingham.

Ruth has a background in social work, counselling and theological education and has a passion for using psychological and theological skills to resource and support Christians involved in all kinds of pastoral ministry.

She completed a doctorate in practical theology in 2015 looking at the pastoral accompaniment of people experiencing psychological and spiritual extremity. Currently she is one of the lead trainers on the Methodist supervisory training scheme and course leader for the IPCS Professional Certificate in Pastoral Supervision.

Mogs Bazely

MOGS is also a co-director of IPCS. An experienced therapist with adults and children, she has lectured in counselling and human relations in colleges and universities, including Church Army College and Sheffield Hallam University.

She worked in Professional Standards for BACP for 11 years. Margaret enjoyed five years as a College Chaplain and loves occasional preaching and worship leading in beautiful Derbyshire. Currently she is one of the lead trainers on the Methodist supervisory training scheme and teaches on the IPCS Professional Certificate in Pastoral Supervision. Her fervent wish is to help spread the spiritual disciplines of reflective practice and supervision in pastoral care and ministry far and wide.

Revd Hilary Ison

www.ison.systems

HILARY has been in authorised ministry in the Anglican Church since 1980 and ordained ministry since 1987. She has been a parish priest, hospice chaplain, adviser for women in ministry and member of a Bishop's senior staff team, a theological educator, and, latterly, a member of the team of Selection Secretaries overseeing the national selection panels for those offering for ordained ministry in the Church of England.

Having discovered, through the experience of working in teams in various contexts, a real affinity for and interest in the dynamics operating in teams and organisations and the impact on individuals within them, she undertook a Master's Degree in Organisational Consultancy (Psycho-dynamic Approaches) at the Tavistock Clinic (University of East London 2002).

As a theological educator, Hilary taught practical and pastoral theology with a special focus on enabling learning through group reflection and on leading groups and teams as a minister. Her freelance work has included individual supervision, facilitation of reflective practice groups in the Diocese of London, and practical theology research projects as in

Her recent training is in 'Systems Constellations' - a method of exploring traumatic events and difficult personal and organisational issues in individual or group settings.
