

APSE 2024 Conference

Deepening wisdom

Soul, compassion, and creativity in pastoral supervision

Dates: Lunchtime Tuesday 11th June – lunchtime Wednesday 12th June, 2024

Venue: Best Western, Windmill Village Hotel, Birmingham Rd, Coventry, CV5 9AL

Deepening wisdom: Soul, compassion and creativity in pastoral supervision

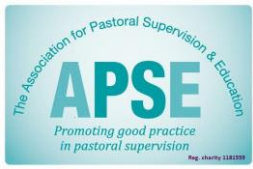

Our keynote speaker, Dr Geraldine Holton will encourage us to engage creatively with the challenges of working across traditions, professions and contexts. Her Wisdom Model™ of Pastoral Supervision offers a collaborative, creative, contemplative, and compassionate approach to supervision.

The conference will provide a space to reflect on how we engage the whole person in supervision. How, as pastoral supervisors, do we draw on our own traditions and wisdom to be attentive and receptive to different language and world views? How can we embrace diversity as part of compassionate and transformative practice?

Geraldine Holton PhD lives in County Louth, Ireland where she is co-founder and director of An Croí Wisdom Institute. She is founding Chair and President of the Supervisors Association of Ireland (SAI). Geraldine is a Jungian Sand Therapist, Sociologist, Spiritual Guide, Mentor and Trainer and has over 25 years' experience as a supervisor, trainer of supervisors and consultant in supervisory practice. She is an international presenter and co-editor of the supervision text, The Soul of Supervision with Dr Margaret Benefiel and author of several papers. Her research interests include transformative learning and creative soul care practices. Geraldine's doctoral research was on Understanding and Using Cross-Professional Supervision.
